Selection Process: Write legible. Chicken scratches or fancy writing that isn't easy to understand will get you quickly denied. Galleries are choosing artwork that tell a story about prison life. The typical prison art isn't what people want anymore. We do not save your artwork on disks or CD's. We take pictures & upload to our website. Once its sold we delete files. Once sold you get a confirmation of what sold and what you earned when we send you your money.

- An artist can ask us to post the artwork for 6 months and then if it does not sell, return to a friend or family member. If they choose this option, we just ask that we get that in writing.
- If artist sells out on his collection, he is dropped from site after 30 days due to inactivity (nothing to sell) to make room for other artists. Once dropped they would need reapply and we cannot guarantee available spots.
- We do not make guarantees that the artwork will sell. Our goal to help provide a venue.
- We do not use our site for pen pal activity/communication
